Tony:

Following are the Attachment A's for the bonds' _____ through _____ which we discussed this morning.

The map attached is identified as the Paradox Basin Potash Project, Site Map w/ Disturbed Area, dated 2/14/2000. I believe the version of map you have in your files has a different date so I am overnighting you both a small scale and large scale version of the map with that date. You will have it in your office tomorrow morning.

If you need anything else, give me a call.
